Re: Our withdrawal as patent counsel for Simax

Dear Ken:

Over the last two years, I have tried contacting you by various means, including mail to the last-known postal address you provided, emails to the last-known email address you provided, voicemails to the last-known telephone number you provided. I even went personally to the address listed on the last check you provided in an attempt to contact you.

Besides the check we received on February 27, 2007, we have received no acknowledgement from you of receipt of these communications. It is important that we be able to contact you at all times in order to consult with you regarding Simax's intellectual property matters. Therefore, we cannot properly represent Simax under these conditions.

Pursuant to the terms of the Engagement Agreement entered by Simax and my firm on January 12, 2000, you authorized us to withdraw as your attorneys and to permit your applications to become abandoned if we cannot communicate with you.

Please sign and return the enclosed "Revocation of Power of Attorney" forms and we will forward all files to you. If we do not receive the executed form by March 15, 2008, we will proceed to petition the Patent Office to withdraw as your attorneys. Please call if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Bruce S. Itchkawitz
